WHY CATHOLIC? JOURNEY THROUGH THE CATECHISM

Society and the pressures of today offer little opportunity for us to stop and reflect on our spiritual life. Small Christian Communities give us the time, the space, and the direction to reflect on our relationship with God and others and become more aware of the times when God touched our lives, challenged us or spoke to us.

Whatever stage we find our relationship with Christ, there is always room for improvement. Being in a small Christian Community encourages us to grow with the support of others. The Why Catholic? Process invites us to rethink our priorities so that we can place a greater emphasis on improving our relationship with God and others and improving our lives.

You may sign up for a group this weekend, January 28-29 (the registration cards will be in the pews and the front entrance to the church) or call Jane Kuklis at 781-545-3335 ext 212 or Michelle Gee at ext 217; or email jkuklis@stmaryscituate.org. Please put the completed registration cards in the collection basket, the basket by the main entrance to the church, or brought to the parish center.

Why Catholic? presented by Renew International offers an opportunity for parishioners to participate in small Christian faith-sharing communities that meet in homes and other locations throughout the parish over the course of six weeks.

What is a small Christian community?

- a group of six to ten people
- who come together to share faith:
- to reflect on ways God is at work in their lives

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS (February 5, 2012)

First Reading -- Job spoke, saying: I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm -- Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted (Psalm 147).

Second Reading -- I have become all things to all, to save at least some (1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23).

Gospel -- Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases (Mark 1:29-39).

FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Loving Father, you call each of us by name and ask us to follow you. Bless your church by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve your people as priests, sisters, brothers and permanent deacons. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

WOULD YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

The Monthly Prayer Request for Priests (MPRP) is an international apostolate which was founded in 1990 to encourage people to support Catholic priests by prayer and sacrifice. Each diocese prays for its own priests. Each day of the year bears the name of a priest from that diocese, obtained from the diocesan directory. Thus, by means of a calendar, the faithful are united in offering prayer and sacrifice for the particular "priest of the day," always remembering to include a general intention of prayer for all priests of the diocese and around the world. The February & March MPRP calendars for the Archdiocese of Boston are available in the entrances of the church and chapel. Won't you join in praying for a priest a day?
